

November 21, 2013 – Thunderstruck Resources Ltd. (the “Company”) announces the appointment of Scott Hamilton as Chief Financial Officer of the Company, following the resignation of Peter de Visser. Scott Hamilton is a graduate of Malaspina College accounting program and has acted as CFO and been an accountant to junior mining and industrial companies. Scott provides service to these companies through his management company SBD Management Ltd. Scott also has provided services for the last 18 years, under contract to De Visser Gray LLP Chartered Accountants, for accounting and auditing for resource and small industrial companies as well as consulted on information technology matters.

The Company’s Board of Directors extends sincere thanks to Peter for his time and contributions to the Company during the period he served as CFO and wishes him the best in his future endeavors.
