October 22, 2025 – Vancouver, British Columbia – Thunderstruck Resources Ltd. (the "Company") is pleased to announce that it has appointed Mr. Fengwen Zheng to the Board of Directors.

Mr. Fengwen Zheng is a seasoned entrepreneur with over 40 years of experience in business management and investment.

In the last two decades, as a controlling shareholder and key decision-maker, he has successfully guided the listing of Zhongrun Resources (SZSE: 000506, now Zhaojin Gold) and completed the acquisitions of Sichuan Pingwu China Gold Mining Company, China Gold Tibet Mining Company and Fiji's largest and oldest gold producer, the Vatukoula Gold Mine. The Vatukoula Gold Mine remains a cornerstone of Fiji's gold mining industry today.

In 2011, Mr. Zheng participated in the restructuring of Lingbao Gold Group (HKEX: 0330) as the second largest shareholder listed on the group. He successively served as the Chairman of Shandong Zhongrun Real Estate Group Development Company and the Chairman of Huibang Investment Company, and his holding and shareholding companies have developed more than 7 million square meters of real estate. Currently, he is the Chairman of New Five Lakes Resources (Tianjin) Co., Ltd., with a focus on mining investments.

"We are thrilled to welcome Mr. Zheng to the Board as our new Executive Director," stated Bryce Bradley, Thunderstruck's President/CEO. "Mr Zheng is very familiar with Fiji's spectacular mineral potential, having served as Chairman of Zhongrun Resources when it acquired Vatukoula Gold Mine, Fiji's longest running gold mine. He will be an invaluable asset in identifying suitable partners and investors in our endeavours to advance our spectacular mineral portfolio."
